IN MEMORIAM

54 | COLUMBIA ENGINEERING NEWS | FALL 2009

Robert V. Hare

In Memoriam

Robert V. Hare (of Moqon, Wis.) passed away unexpectedly on Aug. 30, 2009 while on vacation at his beloved family summer home in East Orleans on Cape Cod. Man. Hare was born in Midlothian, N.Y. and graduated in 1964 from Midlothian High School where he was a National Merit Scholar. After graduating from Colgate University in 1968, he was drafted into the United States Army.

He was a decorated and combatant conscientious objector, serving nine months under fire in Vietnam with the 10th Mountain Division, Before and during his final year of training, he served with the 307th Military Hospital, becoming chief resident during his final six-month posting. From 1975 to 1988, Hare was in private family practice in Moqon. In 1988, he joined the Family Health Plan Cooperative where he became clinical director and served in the organization’s board. After receiving further training through the American Academy of Physician Editors, he continued his medical career as a Medical Director for several national and wide health insurers. His most recent occupation was clinic director and physician at the Shakerette day care, Concord Occupational Health.

Hare’s personal interests included continuous involvement with Moqon’s West Bend Public Library Board, past presidency of and expansion; As a former Eagle Scout, Jim also was deeply in-

BELL LABS: THE FUTURE

Gustafson, Iowa; nieces, Gayle Rae (Woodall) Gaytan Silva, (Rogelio Kian) of San Diego, Calif.; daughter, Greta Elizabeth Hanson, (Rogelio Kian) of San Diego, Calif.; daughter, Andrew Samir Kaldas of Cumming, Ga.; five of Clarkesville, Ga., and grandchildren from his farm. He was a talented man raised and trained standard bred horses and was a skilled reiner, as well as a talented pianist. His personal interests included continuous involvement with Moqon’s West Bend Public Library Board, past presidency of and expansion; As a former Eagle Scout, Jim also was deeply in-

New Students

New Dean Welcomes New Students

New Dean Welcomes New Students

New Dean Welcomes New Students

New Dean Welcomes New Students

New Dean Welcomes New Students

New Dean Welcomes New Students

New Dean Welcomes New Students

New Dean Welcomes New Students

New Dean Welcomes New Students

New Dean Welcomes New Students

New Dean Welcomes New Students

New Dean Welcomes New Students

New Dean Welcomes New Students

New Dean Welcomes New Students